SONCELL NORTH AMERICA, LLC ACCELERATES GROWTH WITH STRATEGIC ACQUISITIONS

NEW COMPANY COMBINES LEADERS IN PUBLIC SAFETY SECTOR TO CREATE LARGEST EMERGENCY VEHICLE UP-FITTING, SERVICE AND SUPPORT NETWORK IN NORTH AMERICA

PHOENIX, AZ – April 9, 2009 – (BUSINESS WIRE)-- Soncell, the Homeland Security Division of Bowmer & Kirkland Group - one of UK's largest privately owned construction and development companies - announced today that it has completed the strategic acquisition of US-based industry leaders in the public safety sector. Ten companies including: AEP-Arizona, AEP-California, AEP-Colorado, AEP-Nevada, AEP-New Mexico, AEP-Utah, Auto Additions, AZ EP Fleet, Emergency Vehicle Solutions and Patrol Power have been strategically acquired by Soncell to create AEP North America.

By fusing ten leading companies, AEP North America brings together the industry's most comprehensive portfolio of services, technologies and expertise. The combined organization has the technical resources and intellectual property required to deliver maximum value to customers. With leading technology, a premier partner network and an organization dedicated to public safety, the company will be able to compete more effectively in new and expanding markets and provide value for its most important stakeholders – its customers, partners, and employees.

The newly formed AEP North America is a fully owned subsidiary of Soncell North America, and furthers Soncell's commitment to public safety worldwide.

"This strategic union brings together successful customer relationships, technical talents and sales capabilities of all the companies," said Brian Brown, Managing Director Soncell North America. "We are all in agreement that by joining forces, we've take the best of the best to position ourselves to demonstrate our unparalleled commitment to the public safety sector."

Soncell North America offers the Public Safety industry a single source with a complete range of high quality, enterprise-class solutions and multi-channel execution with its three distinctive business units: AEP North America, Soncell Products and Soncell Services.

The principals of all the individual companies brought together in this acquisition will remain within Soncell North America in active leadership roles, participating in the strategy for further growth and expansion.
